Wolf Wealth Advisors partners with Animal Humane Society

WRIGHT COUNTY, MN – Wolf Wealth Advisors founder Brian Wolf recently donated $10,000 to the Animal Humane Society (AHS) in Buffalo, a non-profit he’s particularly pleased to help.

“My wife, our five children, and I have always had a heart for the Animal Humane Society,” Wolf said. “I can’t begin to tell you how many pets we’ve adopted through the years.”

Clients of Wolf Wealth Advisors (located in Buffalo and Plymouth) also have opportunities to become involved with the AHS.

“We work with a lot of clients who have a very strong attachment to their pets,” Wolf said, explaining that estate planning can involve asset distribution to organizations like the AHS, as well as pet trusts.

“The Animal Humane Society is excited to be partnering with Wolf Wealth Advisors to bring awareness to the needs of the companion animals in our community,” said AHS Major Gifts Officer Jennifer Hanson.

Each year, the AHS takes in about 25,000 animals across its five sites, including Buffalo, Coon Rapids, Golden Valley, St. Paul, and Woodbury. The animals, which include cats, dogs, rabbits, birds, guinea pigs, mice, rats, hamsters, gerbils, chinchillas, and ferrets, all receive examinations, vaccinations, medical care, and behavior assessments.

For people who are experiencing issues with a pet, the AHS offers a pet behavior helpline, at (763) 489-2202. All messages will be returned within 24 hours. Another resource is a pet behavior library on the AHS website (www.animalhumanesociety.org).

The AHS website also provides photos of all animals currently available for adoption. For more information about the Buffalo AHS location, call (763) 390-3647 or stop by, at 4375 Hwy. 55 SE.
